 Democrats 39-38-1

 Republicans 38-39-1

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we'd like to invite you to participate in one of Capitol Hill's best bipartisan traditions: the 2016 Congressional Baseball Game for Charity.

Batting practices are already under way for Republicans and Democrats. Staffers are gearing up to come out and cheer for their side. Last year, more than 8,000 fans turned out, generating some of the most exciting moments yet in Congressional baseball history.

This year, we're returning to Nationals Park on Thursday, June 23rd at 7:05pm. As part of our tradition, we'll have pre-game festivities at the ballpark and presentation of the coveted Roll Call trophy on the field after the last out.

The Roll Call trophy may or may not change hands, but the real winners are the Washington Literacy Center, The Washington Nationals Dream Foundation and the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Washington. In 2015, we raised a total of over $430,000 for the charities and we hope that in 2016 we can raise even more.

You can participate in this grand bipartisan tradition by becoming a game sponsor. The sponsorship levels are: $1,000 Fan; $2,500 Super Fan; $5,000-$7,500 Home Run; $10,000 Grand Slam; $15,000 Major League; and $20,000 All-Star. You will find sponsorship information in this package. To ensure published credit, we ask that sponsors confirm their participation by Friday, June 3, 2016.

The Congressional Baseball Game for Charity is a Capitol Hill tradition going back over 50 years. Members of Congress take a step back from their differences and enjoy one of America's most cherished pastimes. We hope you'll get involved.

If you would like to participate, or have any other questions, please contact Shelly Roy at (703) 470-1389 or via email at shellyroy1@verizon.net.
